

Surrogate Court Accounting for Trusts & Estates

Navigating the intricate world of surrogate court accounting can be a daunting task for trustees and executors. The complexities and meticulous nature of managing estates, trusts, and probate matters demand utmost precision and expertise. Turn to Farkouh, Furman & Faccio to provide this service in collaboration with the fiduciary, beneficiary and their attorneys.

What is Surrogate Court Accounting?

A Surrogate Court Accounting is a report encompassing all activity occurring within an estate or trust over years or across the entire duration of a fiduciary's tenure. Our experts understand the pivotal role that accurate accounting plays in ensuring a seamless transition of assets and financial matters during the settlement of estates and trusts. With our deep-rooted experience and comprehensive understanding of surrogate court accounting, we are the ideal partner to help throughout the process of properly discharging a fiduciary prior to final distributions from an estate or trust.

Unparalleled Expertise in Surrogate Court Accounting

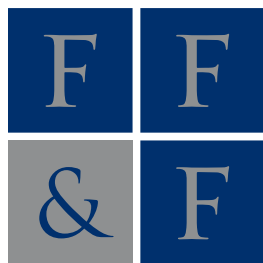

At Farkouh, Furman & Faccio, we take pride in our team of highly skilled professionals who specialize in surrogate court accounting. With their exceptional expertise, they seamlessly navigate the complex regulations, legalities, and financial intricacies associated with surrogate court accounting.
