

Senior Tax Associate

Farkouh, Furman & Faccio, LLP (“FF&F”) is a rapidly growing boutique accounting firm on Park Avenue in midtown Manhattan. Currently, we are looking for a full-time senior tax associate with 3-5 years of public accounting experience who has leadership skills and long-term growth goals.

At FF&F we offer the unique opportunity to work on sophisticated clientele ranging from high net worth individuals and families to businesses of all sizes from startups and sole proprietorships to publicly traded corporations in a small firm, nurturing environment. A major benefit of working for FF&F, as opposed to larger firms, is that you will be exposed to a wide variety of tax matters without being pigeon-holed into one area of tax or accounting. The opportunities to work on various special projects and research for advisory services related to M&A deals, business start-ups, accounting, entity selection, and financial planning are endless.

We offer an outstanding learning environment where you will work directly with the partners, as well as have access to the best research tools. This position offers you the perfect opportunity for career growth where you control your own professional growth. We focus on outcomes as opposed to output with the constant goal of adding value to our clients. Potential candidates must exhibit common sense, ownership, passion and the desire to service clients.

We offer a competitive salary (commensurate with experience) and eligibility for an annual bonus, along with a full range of benefits including medical, dental, vision, 401(k), profit sharing, tuition reimbursement, and paid time off.

Job Responsibilities and Duties:

- Gather, analyze and process data to prepare tax returns for various entities including but not limited to high net worth individuals, trusts, estates, and businesses of all sizes
- Support tax managers and partners in the day-to-day management of client engagements
- Keep management informed on the progress of client engagements
- Understand and research tax concepts and their application to client needs
- Execute various aspects of compliance with moderate to minimum supervision

Qualifications:

- Bachelor’s degree in accounting from a reputable accounting program (master’s in taxation is a plus)
- 3-5 years of experience from a CPA firm
- Strong technical skills pertaining to tax preparation, tax compliance, various jurisdiction correspondence and tax research
- Prior experience with preparation of tax returns for individuals, trusts, estates, and business entities
- Excellent oral and written communication skills
- Excellent interpersonal skills and the ability to effectively communicate with clients
- Ability to work independently as well as in a team environment
- Ability to problem-solve and think both creatively and logically
- Excellent analytical and organizational skills
- Great time management skills with the ability to prioritize and work effectively within budget parameters
- CPA license is a plus
- Proficiency with CCH Axxess Tax software is a plus
- Proficiency with BNA Tax Planner software is a plus

The base salary range for this position in New York City is between $85,00 and $115,000.
