

Tax Manager (Individual)

Farkouh, Furman & Faccio, LLP (“FF&F”) is a rapidly growing boutique accounting firm on Park Avenue in midtown Manhattan. Currently, we are looking for a full-time tax supervisor with 5+ years of public accounting experience servicing high net worth individual clients and with leadership skills and long-term growth goals.

At FF&F we offer the unique opportunity to work on sophisticated clientele ranging from high net worth individuals and families to businesses of all sizes in a small firm, nurturing environment. A major benefit of working for FF&F, as opposed to most larger firms, is that you will be exposed to a wide variety of tax matters without being pigeon-holed into one area of tax or accounting. The opportunities to work on various special projects and research are endless.

We offer an outstanding learning environment where you will work directly with the partners, as well as have access to the best research tools. This position offers you the perfect opportunity to control your own professional growth. We focus on outcomes as opposed to output with the constant goal of adding value to our clients. Potential candidates must exhibit common sense, ownership, passion and the desire to service clients. The ideal candidate will have experience preparing high net worth individual, estate and trust returns. The ability to do tax planning, independent research and manage client contact and relationships are all skills greatly valued.

We offer a competitive salary (commensurate with experience) and eligibility for an annual bonus, along with a full range of benefits including medical, dental, vision, 401(k), profit sharing, tuition reimbursement, and paid time off.

Job Responsibilities and Duties:

- Run client engagements from start to finish including planning, executing, directing, and completing tax projects and managing budgets
- Review complex tax returns for high net worth individuals, trusts and estates
- Work closely with staff on all phases of project and engagement management for multiple clients
- Supervise, train, and mentor tax associates on tax projects and assess performance of staff for engagement reviews
- Maintain primary contact with clients throughout the year; possess a thorough knowledge of the client and all facets of client's business(es)

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in accounting from a reputable accounting program (master's in taxation is a plus)
- 5+ years of experience from a CPA firm
- CPA license required
- Experience supervising, training and mentoring staff including participating in performance reviews
- Excellent technical and research skills
- Excellent interpersonal skills with the ability to effectively communicate with clients
- Strong writing skills for tax notice responses and other ad hoc written resolutions
- Great time management skills with the ability to prioritize
- Ability to work independently as well as in a team environment

The base salary range for this position in New York City is between $135,000 and 160,000.
